

Classroom In The Heart Of Industry At Linwood School

CHI (Classroom in the Heart of Industry) is employment and education training for 16 to 19 year olds. It is a unique opportunity to undertake on-the-job training in the hospitality and retail industry whilst working towards recognised qualifications that will enhance future prospects in employment. The course provides a blend of intensive 'classroom' based learning and on-the-job training with the development of employability skills. The students work towards academic qualifications that have a focus on the workplace and independent living including Financial Skills, Preparation for Working Life and BTEC Hospitality.
