

Ferndown Youth Centre

Ferndown youth centre is a generic youth club provision for young people in Ferndown. The youth centre provides both planned fun activities as well as offering a range of equipment and activities on offer every session. The youth centre is run by qualified youth workers that provide support to young people around a range of issues, all young people need to do is contact us and ask for help. We operate all year round with two types of session - evening youth club and afternoon drop ins. During half term and summer holidays we offer a changed opening pattern and trips out. For more information please contact us directly.
